Program: Exploration and Medical Education in Orthopedic Surgery: Arthrex

Dates: May 11-June 1, 2022

Request accommodations through the Student Office for Accessibility Resources (SOAR)

Course Description: An exploration of ideas in cardiovascular, orthopedic, and regenerative medicine and how today's technologies and medical innovations have changed these medicines.

Program Description: students will explore how today's medical technologies and innovations are impacting patient care and improving outcomes. Students will spend one week in Greenville on campus to better understand the fundamentals of orthopedic and regenerative medicine. During the first week, students will have travel to the local manufacturing facility of Arthrex. The students will then spend two weeks on the Naples, Florida global corporate headquarters of Arthrex. Students will learn directly from research and development, ortho-biologics, and rapid prototype departments to gain a better understanding of how input and collaboration from surgeons is central to the Arthrex approach.
