

Furman University Study Away Program: Academic, Environmental, Physical & Health Expectations

Program: Religious Relations in Italy

Dates: May 11-June 1, 2022

Request accommodations through the Student Office for Accessibility Resources (SOAR)

Course Description: Study of the histories, cultural expressions and architectures, and mutual influences and relationships of cooperation and competition between Judaism, Christianity, and Islam in the Mediterranean.

Program Description: Religious Relations in Italy explores religious traditions, including Greco-Roman ("pagan") religions, Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, in the past and present. Students will learn about relations between these traditions, with an emphasis on the three Abrahamic traditions, that not only competed with each other, but also mutually influenced each other.
